

I like to express my gratitude to my parents and especially my brother, Brayden. He has taught me to be independent and brave. I also want to express my gratitude to my mother who has taught me to be honest and kind. I want to thank my father who will discipline me whenever I am wrong. I understand the need for discipline because it can make me a better person.

Foong Shyn Tong Reyes

